

The FCC should stay out of this stuff - the Commission has become the Maude Frickert of broadcasting and continually makes a fool of itself while trying to satisfy the narrow-minded thought-controlling philistines. Leave us alone and allow us to make our own decisions on what we and our children can watch. I am really tired of being pushed around by a bigotted minority.